May 24 Benefit Concert for Recovery & Hope – What do you know about Phil G?

The evening will feature Phil Giallombardo, a Christian singer-songwriter with deep musical roots. Originally from Cleveland, Ohio, Phil has called North Carolina home since 2000 and has lived in Brunswick County since 2019. A member of CAMP UMC, he brings both talent and heart to the stage.

A former rock musician who spent 15 years performing across the country alongside well-known artists of the 60s and 70s, Phil now shares a message of faith and hope through music. He has released four CDs with the Christian group Wing and a Prayer and continues to give back through his work in the community.

Phil is also the founder of the “Lifeguards,” a Christian men’s group dedicated to supporting those in need through service and fundraising. His past benefit performances have raised thousands of dollars for causes including addiction recovery, mental health support, and aid for the hungry and homeless.

This cause is personal. With friends and family impacted by addiction, Phil is committed to using his music to make a difference.

“I want to let people know they’re not alone in their fight against addiction. As long as I can help just one person with their recovery, that’s good enough for me.”

Come be part of a meaningful night filled with inspiring music, community connection, and hope. All are welcome. Donations will support Christian Recovery Centers in Brunswick County.
